FLYTTAR IN

2 x Lindgren at Junibacken in the autumn reading break! (26/10-4/11)

There's plenty going on at Junibacken in the autumn reading break. Every day during the holiday week, you'll be able to see Tommy and Annika's first meeting with Pippi Longstocking in the acclaimed performance Pippi Moves In.

Outside Pippi's House, Junibacken's own ensemble invites visitors big and small to play and sing tunes from Astrid Lindgren's treasury of songs. Together you all make up Astrid's Best Band.

Junibacken's Pavilion is open all week for "Monkey, horse and house crafts". Come on in and create your own version of Pippi's horse.

Also discover Barbro Lindgren's free, imaginative characters in Junibacken's exhibition and the theatre performance Loranga.

And don't miss going for a ride on the much-loved Story Train.

End your visit in the bookshop, which will be celebrating this week of reading with spectacular offers on the whole range of books. Of course the bookshop stocks Astrid and Barbro's books but it's also got plenty of other thrilling books for children of all ages, all carefully selected by Junibacken's dedicated staff.

From Monday to Friday, there will be a children's book pond too – come in and see if you can fish up a prize from a mighty sea of books!
